SECOND MARINE DIVISION

Dear Mom;

Have just finished washing my equipment & clothes. We are having a inspection to morrow by the Mayor.

We were issued some more clothes today. Was busy all day loading & unloading trucks. Almost all of our equipment is aboard the ship now.

We are on standby now and we may leave any time now. Still don't ^{know} where we are going.

Please don't worry about me because they are just going to ship us where our training can be finished. There is a shortage of space here in California and they need the room for newer recruits.

Hope that your health is good and that you are contented & happy with your job. Please try to help Mary find another home. I think that things will run a little more smoothly at home when she gets away from Eddies Mother.

If you have any time to spare help Mary with the housework. After all, wont you be proud to have a grand son too. You know that Mary isnt as strong as she could be and if you help her a little bit that will make it easier for her.

After I leave here I wont be able to write as much but dont worry I write as much as they will let me.

Until I write to you later so long and take good care of your self. Your Loving Son
George
